"VICTORY BOYS" WILL WORK AND The Zero Hour AID SOLDIERS WITH THEIR PAY

boys should get out and earn money for cher sources, and clear people should help them with employment.

Some boys can make more than $5 and thus may get back of two, three or more soldiers. Some, perhaps, will mot be able to make $5 and will need to work in pairs or groups to get back of a man on the $5 per man basis. To hoys will be organized under leaders, piedges will be taken and the movement will be systematized. Whether in school or not, each boy can find some work he can do in thours not otherwise taken up and fer which someone will be glad to pay him.

those positions.

When it is news, the Associated Press' means someting in a newspaper; that is why "Member of the Associated Press," carried in a newspaper, brands the news of that paper as reliable.

"Associated Press" is a trade mark of the reliable, such of the reliable are the pay him.

The moldiers will need the comforts which the war work funds will provide just as much if war stops as if it goes on. More, in fact, for the excitement of war will have diversions to offset the monotony of waiting months for demobilisation. The war fund must be raised. Here is the chance for boys and girls to help raise it.

Sald the Note.

"We have never committed any atrocities, and while peace argotianisations give as long as they are in the service and orders, whose observance we cannot will need them more when the excitement of war ends than they do now.

Nothing's going to be really worth an eight column to be committed any atrocities, and while peace are committed any atrocities.

Nothing a committed any atrocities and while peace are committed any atrocities.

EVERY boy in El Paso over the age of 12 years should be a "Victory boy" in the drive for the United War Work campaign now about to open. It is a hig movement, mationwide in scope, to put a boy behind every fighting man sent from every community, and it is so much worth while that it has received the support of organizations and associations all over the country.

The idea is to have every boy earn at least $5 and donate the money to the United War Work fund. The assistance cooperation of the Boy Scouts of America has been enlisted in this work. Locally the movement is being backed by Rotary also, and other organizations are expected to give it their tull support. "Victory boys" are being organized not only here but throughout New Mexice and Arizona and every community should have them lined up and at work. There are boys everywhere, boys who will be glad to get behind a seldler and earn at least $5 for him. Every school district abould have its team of boy workers.

Boys and their parents and the whole public at large chould bear in mind that all races and creeds are cooperating in this drive and that the dellar drive of the "Victory boys" deserves every aid possible to give it. The boys should get out and earn money for their soldiers, and older people should help them with employment.

Some boys can make more than $5 and thus may get hard. Some boys can make make the as $5 and thus may get hard. When it is news, the Associated Press handles it; when it is not a propagandist organization, not an erganization for private gain, but an association of daily newspapers of the United States—great and small—of all political political political political opinion and no propagands for political parties, corporations or societies, is carried. Only actual news is handled and this is always free from bias. It has to be, else such an organization could never stand. Its executive officers are elected by the board of directors, who are else such an organization could never stand. Its executive officers are elected by the boa hours not otherwise taken up and for which someone will be glad to pay him.

To show how the idea has taken hold in many states, the following examples are noted:

In Kentucky the state superintendent of schools has designated November 11 as "Victory boys" and "Victory boys" and "Victory gitts" day in all the schools, for in many states "Victory gitts" organizations as well as those of "Victory boys" are being formed.

The kaiser is described as old and bent, incessantly praythe Germans, but if we do, it will be from a sense of duty, catcher.

Though seeking an armistice, the Germana came with a demand and a bluff, true Huns to the last.

It will soon be up to all nations to see that Germany makes no trace conquest of the world, for the German traveling salesmen is already packing his sample case.

The Unhappy Bard

MOST workers pull down princely wages, reward of honest aweat; but still the bards and kindred sages must take what they can get. The man who comes to do my choring draws many bones a day, and at odd moments he is rearing, because of meager pay. At times I hire a learned mechanic to tinker round my tar; his charges put me in a panic, and gives my soul a jar. The butcher, grocer, and the baker have hiked their prices high; and I'm afraid the undertaker will skin me when I die. On everything the price is higher, except on deathbess pomes, and bards can hardly find a buyer for products of their domes. My wife declares she needs a bonnet, she's worn her lid three years, and I remark, "TII write a sounet, a thing of smiles and tears; and if it fetches in some plunder, a roll of good long green, you'll have a heimet that's a wonder, the smoothest ever seen." Then in the market place I flaunt it, among the shopping gents, but not a buyer seems to want it for more than 40 cents. They've raised the price on bens and bearses, on all the things that grow, but coaring and immortal verses won't bring 10 cents a throw.
